5.7	Please provide details of the examination system (Whether examination based or practical based)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Generally, each course will correspond to an assessment comprising of external and internal evaluations. For external evaluation a written exam will be conducted at the end of the trimester/semester for a 100 marks. This will carry 60% of the total evaluation marks. Time duration for end term examination will be 3 hours. Internal evaluation is likely to vary as per the course instructors and may include quizzes, assignments, case analysis, projects, presentations, midterm exam etc. This will carry 40% of the total evaluation marks. It is mandatory for a student to appear in all evaluation components/examination(s) to be eligible for a Grade. • Students who fail to meet the requirement, deadlines etc. of the submission of projects or assignments or who absent themselves at assessment sessions are not entitled to any marks/grades assigned for the same. In their own interests, students are advised to follow the guidelines and schedule for submission of project / assignment reports, etc. In special cases if the delay is on account of certain unforeseen events or activities, then the student must get a written recommendation of the faculty for award of marks/grades. • In case of genuine reason, such as illness (which should be certified by a licensed medical practitioner), student must apply with necessary proof immediately to the concerned

Program Director. In case of any scheduled test during the expected period of absence, the request must be made along with an application prior to the test. The genuineness of each case shall be approved by the Program Director based on the evidence provided including views of the Institutional medical officer in medical cases.

- A student who has been absent from any class test/Assignment/Presentation etc. due to any reason, other than on account of genuine reason, shall not be given chance for make-up.

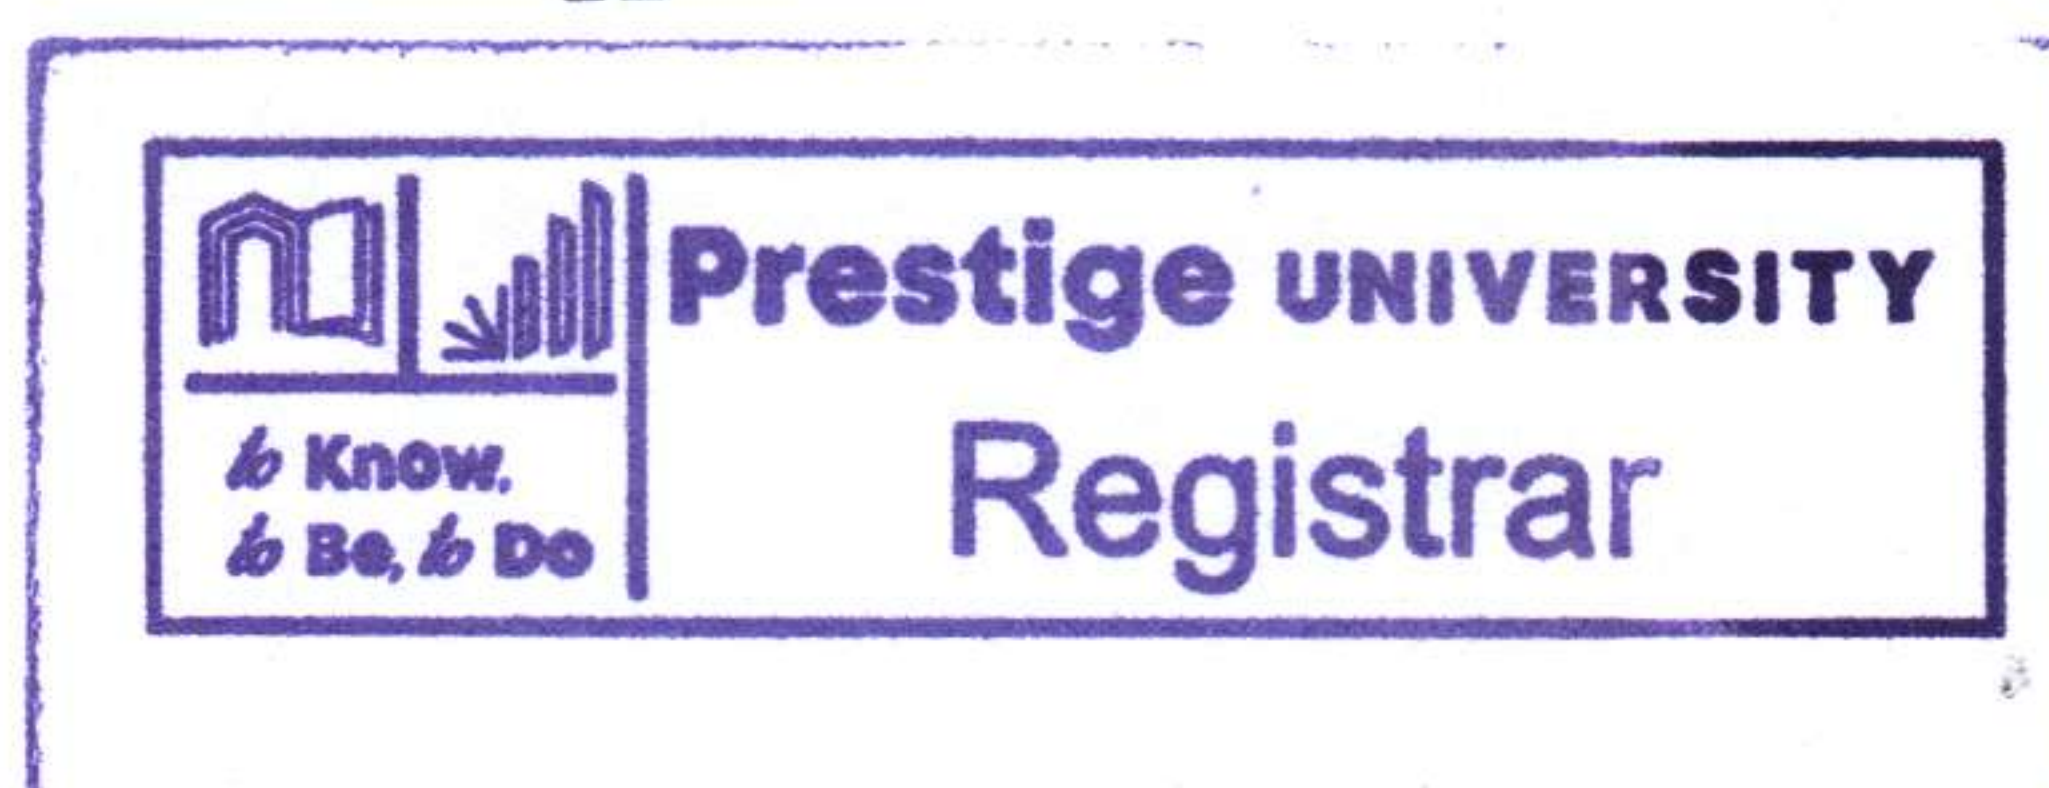

- The answer scripts of all evaluation components/examination(s) examinations will be shown to the students; the date(s) and time(s) of which will be announced well in advance.

Grading System

PU uses a zero-to-ten-point scale for reporting the overall grade. The grades, their corresponding range of grade point, description of grades and corresponding marks range are given in the following table.

Every course has credits attached to them. The GP achieved in each course will be used in conjunction with course credit(s) to arrive at Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA), which reflects the overall standing of the student. The promotion to the second year of the course is NOT automatic. The student has to get a minimum CGPA of 5.5 at the end of Trimester-3 for promotion to the second year.

Letter Grade	Grade Points (GP)	Description	Range of Marks
O	10	Outstanding	90-100
A+	9	Excellent	80-89
A	8	Very Good	70-79
B+	7	Good	60-69
B	6	Above Average	50-59
C	5	Average	40-49
P	4	Pass	35-39
F	0	Fail	0-34
Ab	0	Absent	Absent

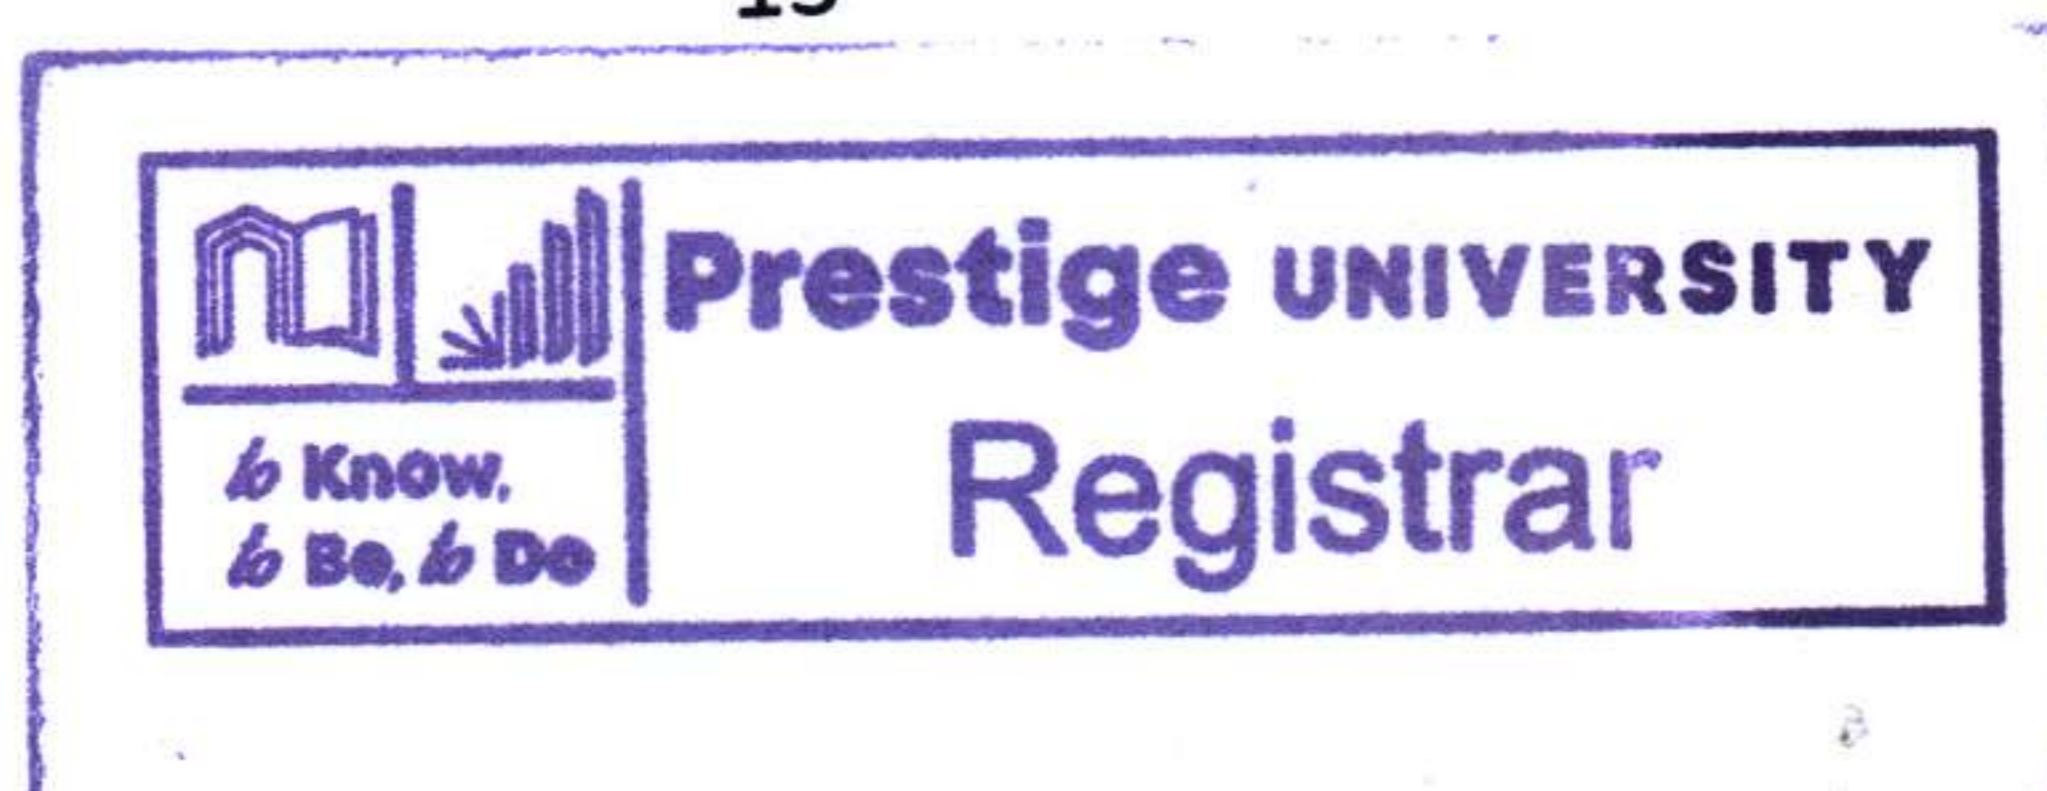

- At the course level the grade point average (GPA) will be rounded to the second decimal point, and that cannot be more than 10.00.
- The course level GPA will be included in the calculation of cumulative grade point average (CGPA) of the trimester, year and program.
- The CGPA for the trimester, year and program will be calculated by rounding up the number up to the two decimal points.
- The trimester and yearly transcript will show the CGPA and not overall grade.
- The program-end transcript will, however, give an overall grade along with the program CGPA.
- Division and their criteria is given in following Table

Division	Criteria
First division with distinction	CGPA of 8.00 or above
First division	CGPA of 6.50 or above but less than 8.00
Second division	CGPA of 5.00 or above but less than 6.50
Pass division	CGPA of 4.00 or above but less than 5.00

Communication of grades and Feed back

The students have right to get timely feedback on all written and other examinations, so that they can watch their progress. Depending upon the nature of evaluation the following guidelines are drawn for the communication of grades and feedback:

- Objective type papers (quizzes etc.) shall be graded and feedback be given within 2-3 weeks.
- Small descriptive type assignments and cases shall be graded and feedback be given within 2-3 weeks.
- Mid-trimester and end-trimester examination shall be graded and feedback be given within 3-4 weeks.
- It is the responsibility of faculty members to show graded papers to the students. The process and mechanism for showing papers will be decided by the faculty member concerned. Part-time and visiting faculty members will also provide grades and feedback to students. However, they can request the support for showing the graded final examination paper and final project, where necessary.
- Final grade must be submitted to the Program Office within 4 weeks from the date of examination.
- The Program Office shall make first year as well as second year transcript available within 30 days from the end of the third and sixth trimester final examinations respectively.

Grade Revision Appeal

Examination and grading is the prerogative of a faculty member. A student has the right to appeal a component grade and the final grade in any subject. The process will be as follows:

- The student will initially attempt to resolve the grade dispute with the faculty member concerned. The student will make his or her appeal in writing to the faculty member, stating reasons why he or she is aggrieved about the grade. Such appeal must be made to the faculty member within a week of the date of announcement of grade for a component by the faculty.

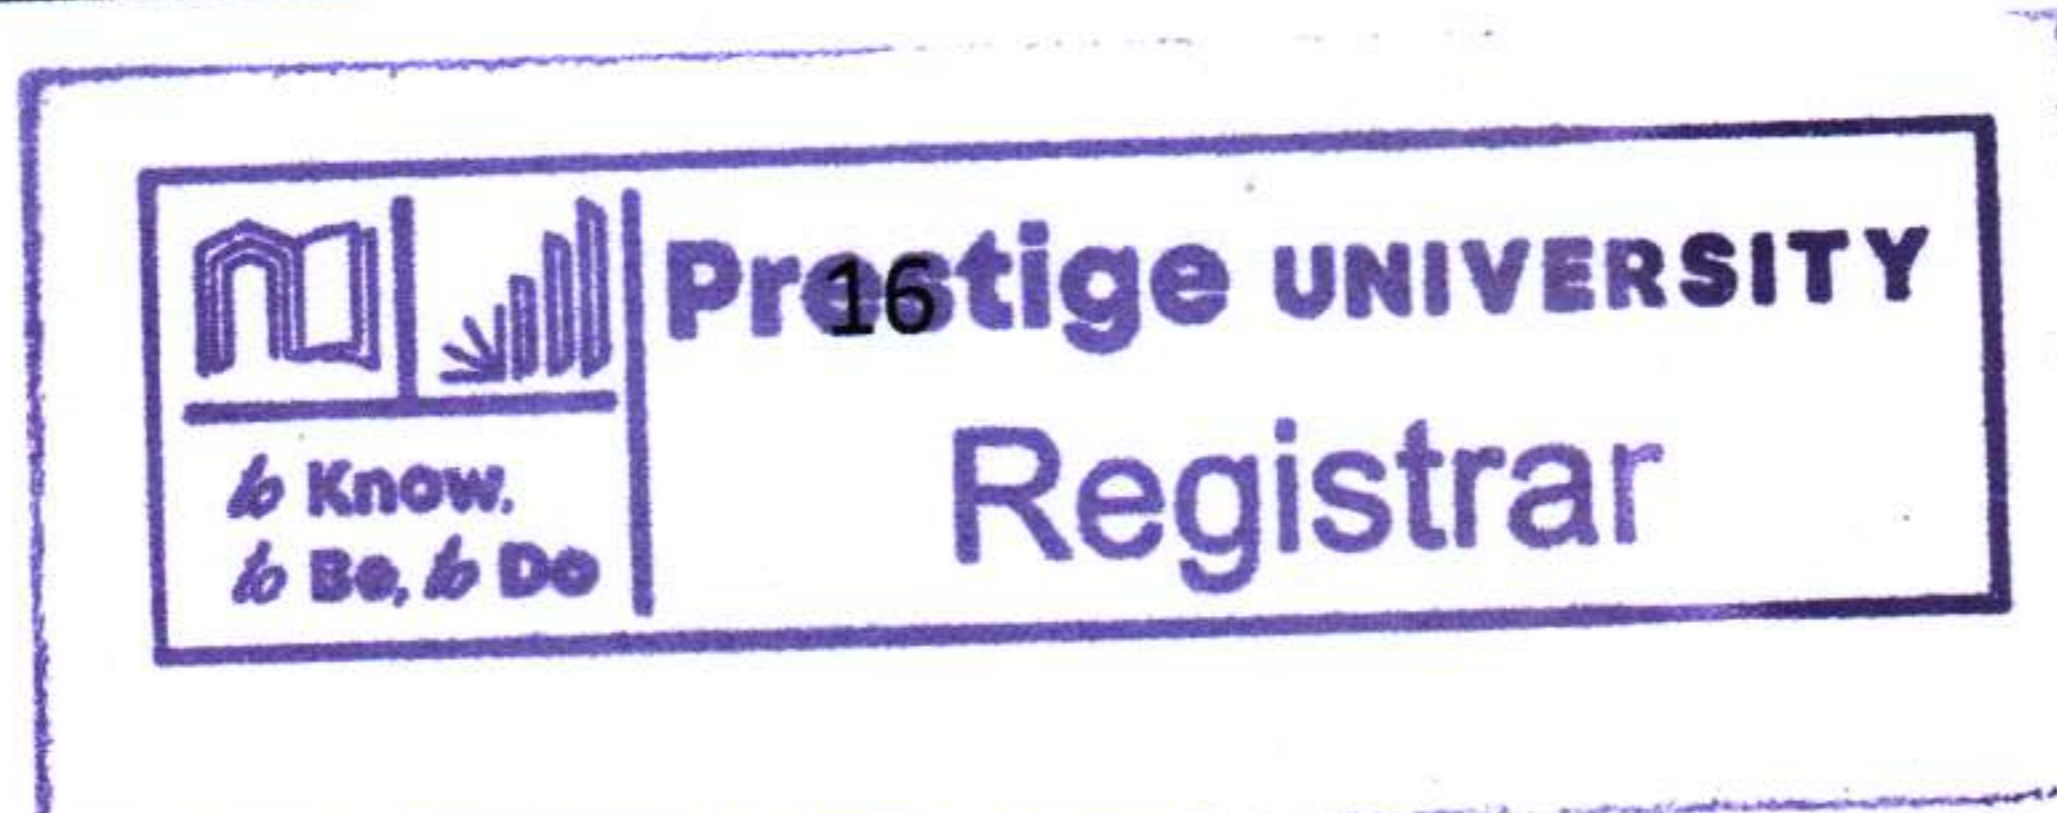

- The faculty member will review the appeal and decide. The decision must be communicated in writing within a week from the date of appeal.
- If the student is not satisfied by the decision of the faculty member, he/she can appeal the faculty member's decision by writing to the Academic Chair within a week from the date of communication of decision by the faculty member. The appeal must include reasons, supportive evidences, a copy of written appeal to faculty member, a copy of faculty member's reply and all other appropriate documents.
- The Academic Chair will constitute a committee for reviewing and recommending appropriate action based on the merits of each case. Such meeting will be held within seven days of receiving an appeal. The recommendations of the review committee will be placed before the Academic Committee which will take the final decision based on the recommendations of the review committee and their own deliberations. The Academic Committee must meet with 7 days of receiving the recommendations of the review committee.

Bhuj

		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • All decisions of the Academic Committee will be placed before the faculty body for reporting purposes. • Every student has the right to appeal to the Dean if the student is still aggrieved with the decision. The decision of the Dean will be final and binding.
5.8	What methods of evaluation of answer scripts does the University follow? Whether external experts are invited for evaluation?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Objective-type papers (quizzes, etc.) are graded, and feedback is given within 2-3 weeks. • Small descriptive-type assignments and cases are graded and feedback is given within 2-3 weeks. • Mid-term and end-term examinations are graded by the concerned faculty member, and feedback is given within 3-4 weeks. • It is the responsibility of faculty members to show the corrected answer sheets to the students. The process and mechanism for showing papers are decided by the faculty member concerned. Part-time and visiting faculty members also provide grades and feedback to students. They use the support of university personnel to show the graded final examination paper and final project, where necessary. • Final grade is submitted to the Program Office within 4 weeks from the date of the completion of the examination. • The Program Office makes the 1st and 2nd-year transcripts available within 30 days from the end of the 3rd and 6th term final examinations respectively. • Examination and grading are the prerogative of the concerned faculty member.
5.9	Mention the number of malpractice cases reported during the last 3 years and how they are dealt with.	The University has commenced its academic activities from the current Academic session 2023-24. No malpractice reported till date

Blaney

5.10	Does the University have a continuous internal evaluation system?	Yes
5.12	How are the question papers set to ensure the achievement of the course objectives?	Each course has a matrix that outlines the course objectives and how they relate to the program objectives. The importance of each course objective with respect to the corresponding program objective is objectively defined. The question paper is designed so that each course objective is accounted for. This is reflected in questions that include multiple choice components, situational analysis, case studies, application-based questions, and concept-testing questions. The idea is to evaluate students on the conceptual and application orientations.
5.13	State the policy of the University for the constitution of board of question paper setters, board of examiners and invigilators.	Since the university is autonomous, the faculty members are given full autonomy to prepare and evaluate question papers. However, a team comprising of senior faculty members, HODs, and the Dean (Academics), scrutiny each question paper based on the following broad guidelines set by the university. Ensuring that all course objectives are met. The course contents and topics have been adequately covered. There is a balance between conceptual, objective, and application-based questions. Invigilators are internal university staff and faculty members. It is ensured that there is an equitable distribution of invigilation load on all members.

Licence under section 8 (1) of the Companies Act, 2013
[Pursuant to rule 20 the Companies (Incorporation) Rules, 2014]

Section 8 Licence Number 115639

WHEREAS it has been proved to my satisfaction that PRESTIGE EDUCATION FOUNDATION, a person or an association of persons to be registered as a company under the Companies Act, 2013, for promoting objects of the nature specified in clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 8 of the said Act, and that it intends to apply its surplus, if any, or other income and property in promoting its objects and to prohibit the payment of any dividend to its members;

NOW, THEREFORE, in exercise of the powers conferred by section 8 of the said Act, I, the Registrar at INDORE, hereby grant, this licence, directing that the said person or association or persons be registered as a company with limited liability without the addition of the word "Limited", or as the case may be, the words "Private Limited" to its name, subject to the following conditions namely :

- (1) that the said company shall in all respects be subject to and governed by the conditions and provisions contained in its memorandum of association ;
- (2) that the profits, if any or other income and property of the said company, whensoever derived, shall be applied solely for the promotion of the object as set forth in its memorandum of association and that no portion thereof shall be paid or transferred, directly or indirectly, by way of dividend, bonus, or otherwise by way of profit, to persons who at any time are or have been members of the said company or to any of them or to any person claiming through any one or more of them;
- (3) that no remuneration or other benefit in money or money's worth shall be given by the company to any of its members except payment of out-of-pocket expenses, reasonable and proper interest on money lent, or reasonable and proper rent on premises let to the company;
- (5) that nothing in this clause shall prevent the payment by the company in good faith of prudent remuneration to any of its officers or servants (not being members) or to any other person (not being member), in return for any services actually rendered to the company;
- (6) that nothing in clauses (3), (4) and (5) shall prevent the payment by the company in good faith of prudent remuneration to any of its members in return for any services (not being services of a kind which are required to be rendered by a member), actually rendered to the company;
- (7) that no alteration shall be made to the memorandum of association or to the articles of association of the company, which are for the time being in force, unless the alteration has been previously submitted to and approved by the Registrar ;
- (8) The Company can be amalgamated only with another company registered under section 8 of the Act and having similar objects; and
- (9) that, without prejudice to action under any law for the time being in force, this licence shall be liable to be revoked, if the company:
 - (a) contravenes any of the requirements of section 8 of the Act or the rules made thereunder or any of the conditions subject to which a licence is issued;
 - (b) if the affairs of the company are conducted fraudulently or in a manner violative of the objects of the company or prejudicial to public interest.
